

After School Hours

Parents are encouraged to have their children go directly home after school hours unless they are participating in a school-sponsored activity. When the latter in the case, parents should have been informed in advance. Parents are also urged to speak with their children about bicycle and traffic safety and stranger danger.